NATIONAL TROTTERS' BOARD OF REVIEW.

The Board of Review of the National Trotting Association reconvened yesterday in the Fifth-Avenue Hotel, with Judge Grant in the chair. James H. Goldsmith, of Washingtonville, N. Y., who made an application for removal of expulsion, was reinstated. Goldsmith was expelled at Beacon Park, Boston, September, 1879. He was charged with pulling the horse Alley. There were a large number of cases yet undisposed of, but the interested parties failed to appear, and last evening the board adjourned to meet in Chicago on the 3d of May. The report that Edward S. Stokes was suspended by the Board of Review for failing to notify Cornelius J. Vanderbilt, to whom he sold the mare St. Helena, that a fine of $100 had been imposed upon him for improper racing in California is not correct. The reporter misunderstood Mr. T. J. Vail, the Secretary of the board. Mr. Vail says: "The case does not reflect upon Mr. Stokes as having participated in any 'improper racing.'" Mr. Stokes says that he was not present at the race in Sacramento when the mare St. Helena was withdrawn. He was wholly unaware at the time she was sold to Mr. Vanderbilt that there was a fine of $100 attached to her. Mr. Stokes yesterday complied with all the requirements of the board in respect to the case.
